- What Will it Take to Support New Jersey's Industry Clusters

Abstract: Provides the results and interpretation of a collaborative research project completed by the New Jersey Chamber of Commerce and PlanSmart New Jersey, The Chamber and PlanSmart NJ conducted this project to explore the concept of Regional Innovation Clusters (RICs), a theory that is explicitly promoted as a means to achieve targeted economic growth in various state level economic development initiatives. This report documents the relationship between New Jersey's industry clusters and the state's existing infrastructure to evaluate how infrastructure investment and economic development align on the ground.
